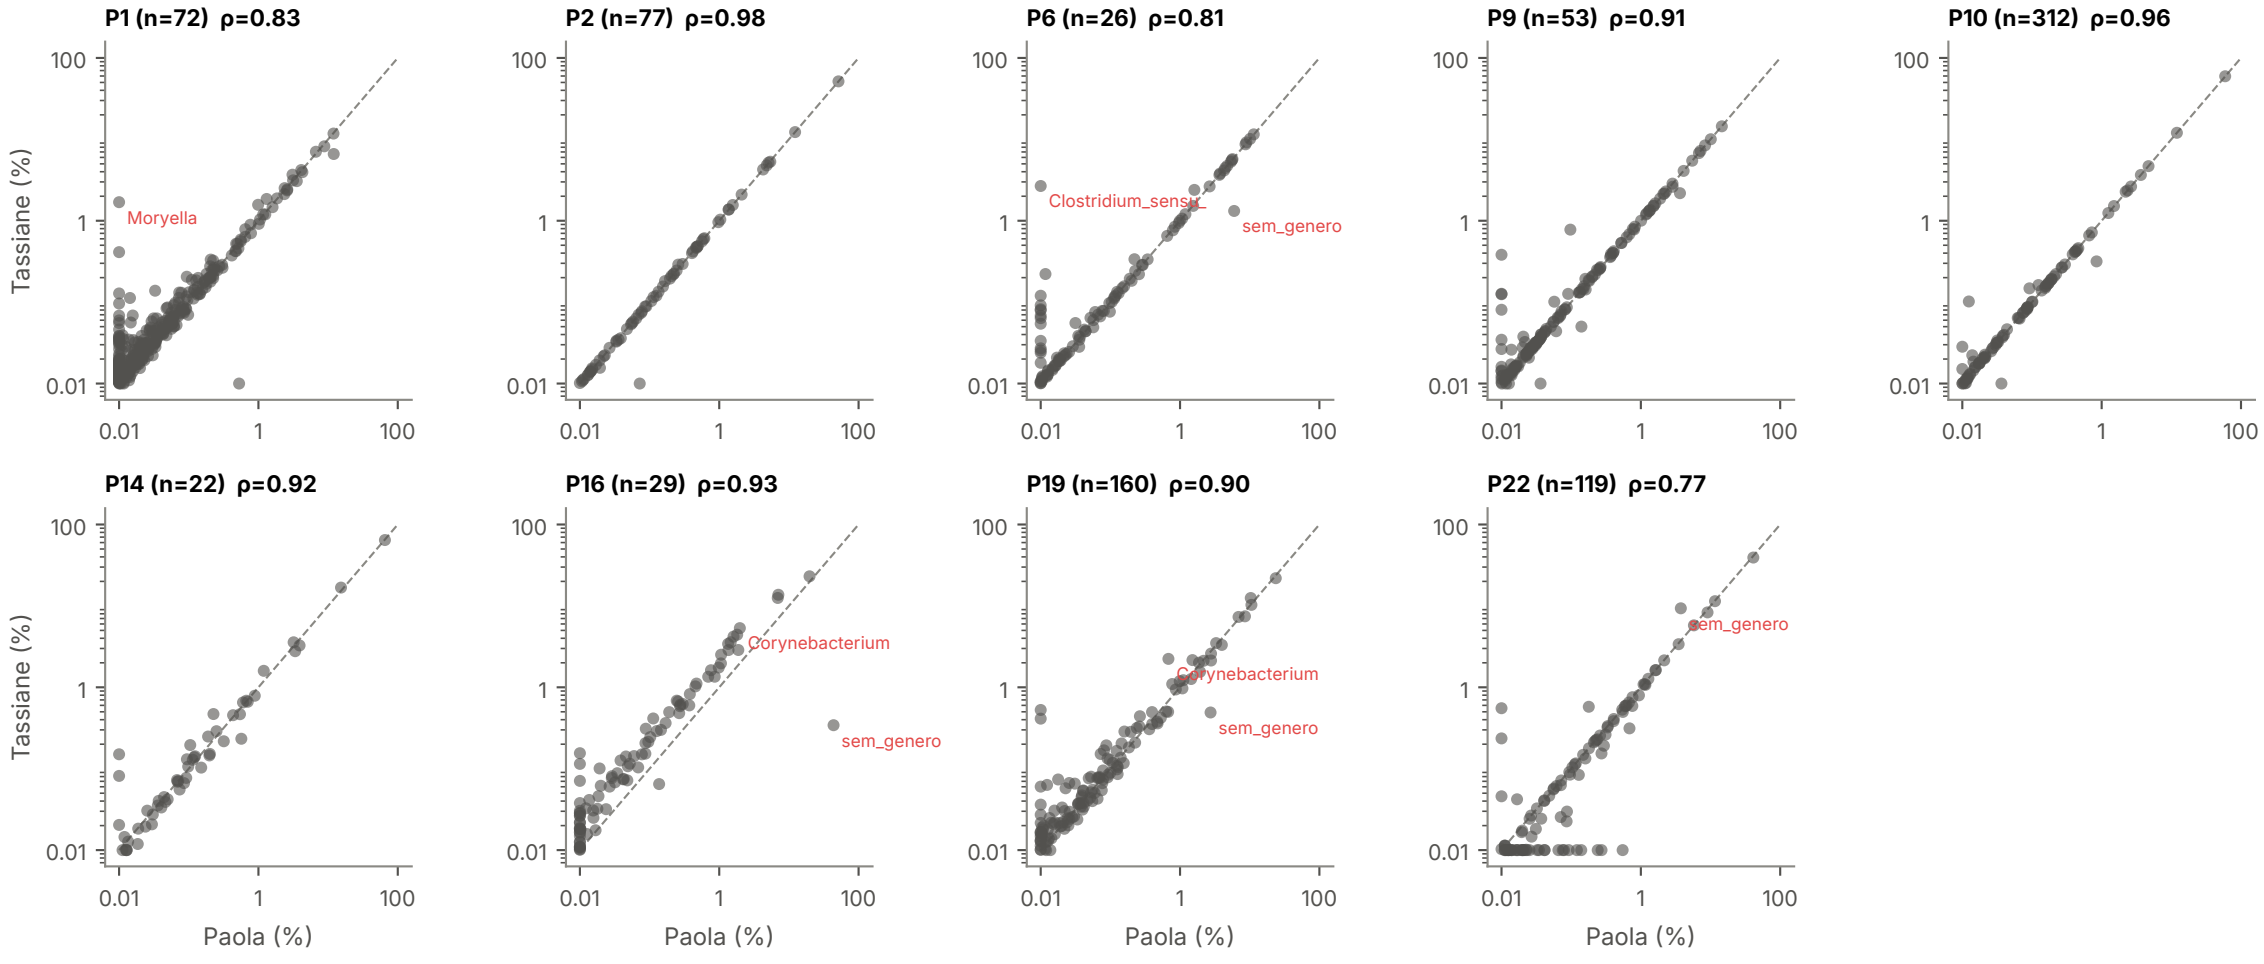
Genus by genus, the same samples in the two tables



Each dot is a genus: mean relative abundance over the samples present in both tables (log scale). Dashed line: identical. Red labels: largest disagreements among genera above 1%.